Dears Sirs,

I wanted to write you and let you know how I feel. Additional regulations will not solve any problems. As a government agency designed to look out after my interests, I expect OSHA to keep my views in mind on this issue.

This is a broadly written set of regulations that don't seem to be well thought through. Making business owners carry the burden of watching who smokes while on the property creates an undue responsibility.

If government can suddenly take away a person's right to smoke, then I wonder what they are capable of taking away next? Will the OSHA "health police" be watching my place of business?

We small business owners are tired of paying so much in taxes and being hit with more rules. I urge you to vote no.

With Regards,
